NATHALIE DU PASQUIER

b. 1957, Bordeaux, France)

Artist and designer Nathalie du Pasquier moved to Milan in 1979, where she became a founding member of the influential and decade-defining Memphis Group, creating patterns for decorated surfaces, such as textiles and furniture. In 1987, she shifted her focus to painting, in which her work features geometric furniture, lamps, and the unexpected and energetic color relationship for which the Memphis Group is known for.

CEDRIC RAGOT

(b. 1979, Dieppe, France – d. 2015, Paris, France)

After graduating from the French National Institute for Advanced Studies in Design, Cedric Ragot founded his own design studio in 2002. With Eclecticism as his personal choice, he built a cross category approach of industrial design, getting involved into a broad scope of application fields. Mixing creative imagination and industrial reality, his designs associate with the functional aspect of an object a solid proposition in concept and image.

ETTORE SOTTASS

(b. 1917, Innsbruck, Austria – d. 2007, Milan, Italy)

Known for his large oeuvre including furniture, jewelry, glass, lighting and office design, Sottsass was also one of the founders of the Memphis Group. His own work was known for its variety, often times incorporating playfulness through ornamentation and color. In 1959 he designed the first Italian electronic calculator and typewriter models such as Praxis, Tekne and Valentine, in which the latter is now part of the permanent collection at MOMA.
