

GHALIYAH

ART PHOTOGRAPHY GRAPHICS FILM-MAKING MUSIC EVENTS CONTACT ME

Senses & Sensibilities By Hend Al-Falafly

2

September 6, 2012 by ghaliyah

Instagram Update

There was an error retrieving images from Instagram. An attempt will be remade in a few minutes.

Top Posts & Pages

- Sabhan Adam

Egyptian artist Hend Al-Falafly, born in 1979 is a distinguished painter and professor of fine art. She works in a diverse range of painting, drawing, and engraving. her work is inspired by cultural and philosophical symbols of Egyptian culture such as the diagnosis of social status, and the Egyptian simple life, and landscapes of the revival Egyptian People . She has participated in more than 40 exhibitions worldwide.

Categories

- Art (69)
- Calligraphy (7)
- Conceptual Art (1)
- Design (5)
- Events (18)
- Film-Making (5)
- Graphics (6)
- Music (5)
- Photography (12)

Archives

- January 2014 (1)
- January 2013 (5)
- November 2012 (5)
- October 2012 (4)
- September 2012 (3)
- August 2012 (2)
- April 2012 (9)
- January 2012 (1)
- November 2011 (4)
- October 2011 (9)
- September 2011 (1)
- August 2011 (8)
- July 2011 (10)

“Realism is what worries me , and that I want to express within a Middle Eastern community. At first, I was able to express a collective or individual cases of the Egyptian society to which I belong, Which includes drawing and paintings people and landscapes that is inspired from the human spirit, and the evidence of its presence.” – Hend AL-Falafly

- June 2011 (2)
- May 2011 (2)
- April 2011 (7)
- March 2011 (7)
- February 2011 (10)
- January 2011 (7)

Amsterdam Andy Warhol Arab
Museum of Modern Art Art ArtSharks
Artspace Gallery Auction Ayad
Alkadhi Ayyam Gallery Bahrain
National Museum Beirut British
Museum Calligraphy CAP Christie's
Cityphilia Collage Conceptual art
Contemporary art Damascus
DIFC Dubai Dubai International
Financial Centre Egypt Events
exhibition Fa Gallery felt-making
Fine art Galleries Gallery
Tilal Graphic design Gulf War Hayv Kahraman Imagery Installation Islamic calligraphy Kulthum Umm
Kuwait Lebanon London
Masterpieces Middle East
Mixed media Modern Art
Museum Nadim Karam Nuqat Opera

Senses & Sensibilities

In her latest show at Art Sawa – Dubai , Hind explores through her work the different emotions expressed by the women, usually which are part of her daily life. She strongly uses the body language to understand the meaningful silence carried over their experiences and different stories. Hend reflects all its semantic in

Gallery Painting Paintings Paris
photography Politics Pop art Print-Making Programs qatar
Safwan Dahoul Sara Shamma
Screen-printing Self-Portrait Short film
Social Solo show (art exhibition)
Still dreaming Syria Tehran Television
Third Watch Tilal Gallery Visual Arts
Visual communication Zena Assi École nationale supérieure des Beaux-Arts

Email Subscription

Enter your email address to subscribe to this blog and receive notifications of new posts by email.

Join 40 other followers

Sign me up!

the facial expressions and body movements that reveal the tension, and the emotions repressed. Although the silence of the lips, the hands become the voice, the eyes, which transcends all the languages, speak in a glance.

To view more of her work: Artsawa

Advertisements

Share this:

Tweet

Pin it

in Share

tumblr.

Email

★ Like

5 bloggers like this.

Related

Shadows of Memory

Shanab - Raising The

Youssef Nabil

In "Art"

Stereotype
In "Art"

In "Art"

Category: Art | Tags: Artsawa, Egypt, Middle East, Realism

« Picture an Arab Man – A Visual
Art Project

The Epic Life of A World-
Class Artist »

2 thoughts on “Senses & Sensibilities By Hend Āl-Falafly”

Dr. Leos

September 6, 2012 at 10:59 am

Ms. Hend’s works are very interesting and strongly impressive, passing messages behind the surface. She must be a very interesting personality as well.

Reply

Ladashia

October 7, 2012 at 6:51 pm

She is .. thank you for sharing your thoughts and interest

Reply

Leave a Reply

Enter your comment here...

Blog at WordPress.com.

